Trial Attorney Specializing in Disputes with Insurance Companies, Over 40 Years' Experience

Legal Attorney and Insurance Lawyer

Firm Profile

James T. Hudson is a California civil trial lawyer, specializing in insurance disputes.

Mr. Hudson handles virtually all types of insurance claims: for disability income losses; for life insurance benefits; for property losses; and claims arising out of liability insurance, including claims for failure to defend or failure to settle.

In addition to damages for policy benefits, many of the claims handled by Mr. Hudson involve insurance bad faith.

If an insurance company acts in bad faith in the handling of a claim, it may be liable for damages in addition to policy benefits, including emotional distress, attorney's fees and punitive damages.

An initial consultation with Mr. Hudson is without charge or obligation. Fee arrangements are flexible and negotiable: contingent, hourly, flat or a combination.
