

CASSANDRA
T. SAVOY
ATTORNEY AT LAW

20 Years Experience

- since 1991, Cassandra T. Savoy has been helping families get the best possible result, inside the courtroom and out. She is fully committed to trying to solve the problems of each and every one of her clients. Her work is typified by a diligence in the pursuit of what the client believes is in his or her best interest.
- She prides herself on practicing law with high ethical standards and her track record demonstrates her uncanny ability to receive and maintain the trust of her clients. In the world of family law, trust is key – and few understand that better than Cassandra. Family law clients must divulge their deepest darkest secrets, which means establishing trust is paramount to achieving a positive result for all. A large part of building that trust is by word of mouth – 40% of our business is obtained through referral.
- One statistic that helps give our clients some calm and peace of mind: 97% of family law cases in New Jersey settle. Cassandra is able to settle cases largely because she understands the nuances. Often the law is not black and white as much as it is gray. Understanding the nuance is a crucial part of her ability to help clients see the benefit of a bargain. She is very deliberate about trying to negotiate settlements that do not cause the client to have to litigate and re-litigate, and re-litigate their cases...even when the other side is difficult.
